Hot Streak Continues For Abby Phillips & VF Expensive Taste With Canadian Rodeo Victories

By Tanya Randall

Abby Phillips' hot streak continued north of the border. She and her great mare VF Expensive Taste ("Andi Anderson") collected $12,303 after winning two of the three rodeos they contested.

"It was an awesome experience," said the barrel racer from Marshall, Texas. "Obviously, getting wins at the two biggest ones wasn't something we expected. I expected her to do well, but I didn't expect her to throw down like that. Andi is feeling good, and she wants it. We've just been blessed. I'm thankful to be out here. All the Canadian rodeos have been awesome. The people have been so nice. The rodeo grounds have been awesome. There's grass everywhere; the horses love that. All in all, it's been a great experience.

Phillips and Andi started their week in the first performance of the $8,002-added Sundre Pro Rodeo in Alberta. The victory was worth $4,865.

Next was a Saturday night performance at the $4,000-added Guy Weadick Days in High River, Alberta. There, they placed sixth to earn $1,112.

They wrapped up on Sunday at the $12,500-added Wainwright Stampede in Alberta. Running first after a drag in the performance, they claimed the $6,326 victory.

"I was super surprised how well she did our first weekend in Canada," Phillips said of her 7-year-old Eddie Stinson mare out of the Victory Farms' owned mare Expensive Crystal, by Southern Cartel. "She won her first Canadian rodeo with her very first run in Canada in Sundre. Obviously, we weren't expecting that, so it was super special. Every run, she's just...I'm running out of things to say about Andi. She has just been so spot on. She is with me every second of every run we've made. I think that's been the difference for us these past few weeks with some of these big runs, she's hardly made any mistakes. We've had a lot of fun, for sure."

Phillips said making the Canadian run prior to Cowboy Christmas was out of her comfort zone, but she's glad she did it.

"It's really hard for me to try something new," she said. "I'm like my horses, or maybe they learn it from me, but I get stuck in a routine. I like to do the things I'm used to and stay in my comfort zone. Reno seemed like my comfort zone. Then I sat down and thought about it. I hadn't had any luck at Reno or those other rodeos (stateside), and I had run at them multiple times. Trying the Canadian rodeos was something new, so it took a lot of pushing from my family, Ann (Thompson, who enters her), and people helping me. I'm sure glad I did, but it was a hard push for me."

Her only rodeo this week is the $60,000-added Ponoka Stampede in Alberta. She had entered Fort MacLeod but opted to turn out to rest Andi for Ponoka.

Turning out of lesser paying rodeos to save Andi for the more lucrative runs has paid off handsomely for Phillips. She turned out of Eagle Mountain, Idaho, to rest for Sisters, Oregon, which she won. This past week, she turned out of slack at Bassano, Alberta, in favor of saving Andi for Sundre later that night.

Phillips also plans on running her pro rodeo winning backup VQ Im Buzzed ("Big P") more over the Fourth of July.

"He's been gearing up and getting into shape," Phillips said of the full brother to NFR qualifier VQ Sucker Punch. "I'm trying to decide who gets the call at Calgary. I'm kind of leaning toward Big P a little bit. It's still up in the air. It's a day-by-day thing. Calgary and the stuff over the Fourth are definitely his jam. These Canadian rodeos that I just ran at the past weekend, even though they were very much standard patterns, the barrels were still like on the walls.

Big P doesn't like that as much. Over the Fourth I entered the Oregon ones, and the barrels are definitely more out in the middle of nowhere and Calgary is definitely more wide open. That's kind of his jam. I've just been trying to save him for what I know he's good at. It will allow Andi to rest during those moments and give him a chance to shine."

While it will be hard to get off Andi since she's winning almost everything, Phillips said she's learned a lot about the mare and knows what her preferences are.

"I know where she does well," she said. "I've just told myself if I don't have a good feeling about it, don't run her. I know she can win at the next one or at least have a good shot. I try not to get caught up in 'this one has this amount of money added.' I try not to get caught up in 'Oh, it's Calgary' or a smaller one." I just run her where I think she can win. It's the same thing with Big P, I try not to waste my runs on him. Obviously, we can't always do that, but I try to put each of my horses where I think it will show their strengths, no matter the rodeo."

Phillips currently sits third in the WPRA World Standings with $78,571. She's closing the gap on World Standings' leader Leslie Smalygo's $84,025 and Wenda Johnson's $81,605.

Tristan Parrish Happy N Famous After Crooked River Roundup Victory

By Tanya Randall

Tristan Parrish and her 9-year-old mare Happy N Famous (“Cappy”) pocketed $4,596 for winning the $10,000-added Crooked River Roundup, held June 20-22 in Prineville, Oregon.

“My horse did awesome!” said the Yakima, Washington, based barrel racer. “I was up in slack on the bottom of the ground. I try not to get into that bottom-of-the-ground mindset, and my horse stays so straight and upright. Most of the time she can just plow straight through it, and she sure did! I knew she had a great run. I know when we can turn our first barrel that we’re golden if I can ride her correctly. I just rode her to her spots, and she ran so hard. I was like, ‘Holy Crap! Where did that come from!’ I didn’t know it would be that fast, but I was darn sure happy it was!”

Parrish, who will turn 24 over the Fourth of July run, purchased Cappy from her breeder Jennifer Cook in December 2019. Cook raised and futuritized the daughter of champion performer and sire Firewaterontherocks, out of the Dash Ta Fame, Corona Cartel mare Cartel Cowgirl.

After running where she could during the COVID shutdown, Parrish started rodeoing on the mare in 2021.

“Honestly, it took me about a year to have consistently great runs,” she admitted. “It wasn’t a ‘her’ issue; it was always a ‘me’ issue. She’s so sensitive and finicky. It wasn’t like she’s super hard to run. She runs so hard to her first barrel, and it took me a while to figure out what I needed to do. It took me about a year and a half, and she keeps getting better and better. Just when I think I’ve hit her peak, she blows me away.”

Parrish grew up in a non-rodeo family but started out in the leadline class at the local junior rodeo.

“I didn’t grow up in a rodeo family at all,” she explained. “My grandparents had cattle, so naturally they had horses. There was a little local junior rodeo in Toppenish (Washington), and I was like ‘Oh, I want to do that!’”

She honed her skills through the school of hard knocks. “It was a learning curve,” she said. “I didn’t have a lot of mentors to look up to in that regard. I had my grandma, who was a great horsewoman, and I learned a lot of stuff from her. As far as barrel racing goes, I didn’t really know anything. I’m very much self-taught and I seek help when I can. Later in life, I’ve had help from a lot of different people. I try to keep learning. It’s been a slow process with trial and error, but I’ve learned a lot along the way.”

Parrish’s goal for this year is to qualify for her second Columbia River Circuit Finals Rodeo. She qualified for her first in 2022 as a rookie member of the WPRA.

“I’ve just stuck the rodeos in the Columbia River Circuit this year,” she said. “(Cappy) won Central Point (Oregon) and this. She’s done well when I haven’t hit a barrel, which is usually always my fault. I’ve just been taking her where she likes to go, and she’s been doing well for me. I just want to keep her happy and going.” She also wants to venture out to some new-to-her rodeos.

THE RUNDOWN w/Tristan Parrish

Happy N Famous (“Cappy”) 15.2-.3 h, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: L&W Stabilized O-ring with a twisted mouth.

SADDLE: Burns

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine or Professional’s Choice, front only

SHOEING: Aluminum wedge on front, plain steel behind

FEED: Purina Strategy GX

HAY: Cubeit alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Bluelite electrolytes

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT, lots of icing, Magic Cushion to pack feet

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: I try to ride her out in the pasture, long trot, keep her stretched out, walk out in the cows, just keep her fit and don’t get her tired. If I don’t have any rodeos, I might ride her four days a week. If I have rodeos, it depends. I like to give her two to three days off after a rodeo to let her recover.

THANKS: Mother Sally Parrish and Grandfather Steve Parrish for feeding and caring for her horses while she’s gone. She also wanted to commend the Prineville rodeo committee on their efforts with the ground. “I appreciate the Prineville committee for putting all their effort into the ground” she said. “They tried their hearts out.”

Knowing what’s right doesn’t mean much unless you DO what’s right.

— Theodore Roosevelt

“We’ll see how that plays out,” she said. “Maybe next year I’ll have some bigger goals in mind. I want to make sure I have a solid backup for her.”

Cappy’s current backup is Parrish’s 2023 Valley Girls Barrel Daze Futurity Champion Fame Fire N Desire (“Cersei”), a 5-year-old Dash Ta Fame mare.

“She’s been doing well, but she just needs experience,” she said. “It’s just so hard for me to get off Cappy because I know she’s so competitive. I’ve run her at a couple (rodeos), but it’s just been a process. I haven’t been going a lot. I don’t have three or four every weekend like some people do.”

Parrish does have a busy Fourth of July run scheduled since her circuit is flush with rodeos. While she has a few others on the books, her main rodeos will be St. Paul and Eugene, Oregon, and Basin City, Washington.

Bailey Banks at Cross Country Showdown

This past weekend at the Cross Country Ranch Showdown in the Cascades in Powell Butte, OR, the competition was fierce, but Jordan Bailey dominated the Sunday Open winning 1st, 2nd and 4th in the 1D. Over the weekend she rode 4 different horses to 17 checks totalling $9,315! Anyone watching the results from the Northwest very closely is very familiar with the name Jordan Bailey, but if you aren't we caught up with her to find a little bit more out about her and her horses!

BRR: Can you share with us what all horses you ran this weekend?

Bailey: I ran PC Sugar Judge (Diesel)
Cinchyawazup (Cinch)
Ima Girl Fame (Olive)
Classy Way Ta Fame (Jolene)

BRR: On Saturday you placed 4th & 5th in the Open and then came back and ran almost 3 tenths faster on Sunday on those two horses to win 1st & 2nd (Cinchyawazup & Pc Sugar Judge). What did you change between Saturday or Sunday?

Bailey: There really wasn't a lot that I did different. The horses just felt more dialed in for there runs on Sunday compared to Saturday. I felt like I didn't need to do a whole lot in my runs on Sunday.

BRR: Can you walk us through your 1st & 2nd place run from Sunday?

Bailey: PC Sugar Judge (2nd in Sun 1D) My run on Saturday wasn't as smooth as I was wanting it to be so that was really my goal on Sunday was to smooth my turns out better and it seemed to work! Cinchyawazup (1st in Sun 1D) I've only been running her for a few months and finally seem to be getting things dialed in for the both of us. She can be real ratey and she likes to turn alot. I really just tried to ride her to her spots and not let her hit any barrels (LOL)! She rubbed one and two coming into them so I felt like I had a few Merry Christmas's there.

BRR: You are always running and winning on a bunch of different horses of all different ages. How do you go about having them all ready to run their best?

Bailey: Well I think it helps that I've had them in my program for a couple years and I feel like I get to bond with them through the training process a lot. I really just try and make sure their working good at home and feeling good in my hands when warming up and when I go out there I just try and let them work and do their job I trained them for.

BRR: As a follow up to that; how do you mentally prepare yourself to run so many different horses of different ages & stages?

Bailey: Like I said above, I know these horses pretty well; not alot surprises me with them so it's easy to jump from one to another. I really try and focus on doing my job out in my runs and not getting in me head about certain things or over thinking and a good attitude really helps keep me going. When I have a bad run, I try hard not to let it get me down.

BRR: You have had a lot of success in the futurities and opens and such. Do you plan to rodeo as well at some point? What are your future plans?

Bailey: I have rodeoed here and there the last year or so. I would like to start rodeoing more but mainly I want to keep doing the young horse thing. Next year is our first foal crop of Judge My Class babies to hit the pen! I will be focused on them for the next couple years!

BRR: For those that haven't been following your career, can you share a little about yourself and a few of your biggest wins?

Bailey: 2X American SemiFinals qualifier; SEMI American Red Bluff Champion; 2 time JR. NFR qualifier; Top 10 JHRA Barrels; WA St. WSJHRA Barrels champion; NW NBHA 1D Champion;

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Summer is here and everyone I know in the northern country is trying to fit a year of OUTSIDE activity into 3 months. Yards, hay fields and kids in every sport! And let's not forget us adults! For me it's more barrel racing! So I recently entered a big barrel race. I took three horses. Two of them I ran past the first barrel and I couldn't get the Jake brake off the third horse. But interestingly, in the 4D system, I placed...won some money and some beautiful awards. Go figure!

So my grandson asked me how I did. I told him what had happened, how I was disappointed in how my horses worked (how bad I rode them!) He's a very serious 7 year old and after giving it some thought he said, "Grandma Sherry, here's what you need to do. You need to practice going around that first barrel the right way (ya think????) until they do it right. EVERY DAY Grandma Sherry, you need to practice it EVERY DAY and you'll get better!"

It just blessed my heart to get that sage advice from someone so young. But then, immediately, I got advice from my heavenly Father, One who had been here all eternity! And HE said, "Sherry, if you would practice what I teach you in the Word...EVERY DAY...I WILL ALWAYS CAUSE YOU TO TRIUMPH!" It says so, right her in 2 Cor. 2:14. "Now thanks be unto God, which always causes us to triumph in Christ...."

We so often look to the world for our direction. When I'm standing in the checkout line at the store and reading the covers of all the magazines there, it is remarkable how many of them have articles that promise if you do this or do that you'll win or get help. After all you know, actor or actress so and so consulted so and so and they now have life peace. Seriously????

Generally the person that has been their life coach is a failure in their own life. BUT GOD is not a failure! He's our life coach! His Word will guide and direct us into all truth, John 16:13 and His truth will make us free, John 8:32! That's how to spend all those wonderful summer days, hearing and obeying the Word of God. No matter what we do, WITH HIM we will win!

Have a very rewarding summer!
