Jamey Hunt & Gripe Gut Win Second Straight Virginia Barrel Horse Classic High Stakes

By Tanya Randall

Jamey and Ashley Hunt have it figured down to the penny. After collecting $55,306 at the Virginia Barrel Horse Classic, held May 30-June 2, Gripe Gut, affectionately known as "Juice" has lifetime earnings of $464,457.44.

"I said when he got to half a million that I would retire him," laughed Ashley, "but the vet (Nate Lea at Outlaw Equine) and Jamey both disagree."

"I told her that he'd go crazy if we had to retire him," Jamey added. "This past month when I started hauling all the 3-year-olds a couple of days a week. After about the third time, you could tell he started getting mad. 'Where are you going and not taking me?'"

Juice was not about to be left out of the trip to Lexington, where he won $44,020 a year ago.

"I'm loading horses and he's standing in the barn with his head hung out," recalled Jamey. "When you put the halter on him and lead him out, he's really bad about almost jerking the lead rope out of your hands to eat grass. But, when I got him out of the stall, he didn't want no grass, he drug me out of the barn and trotted straight up to the trailer! He was like, 'Ya'll ain't leaving me!'"

Juice, a 10-year-old gelding by Little Jungle Jet out of Redneck Gal, by Country Quick Dash, is a solid Paint that Jamey took in trade for some horse shoeing as a 2-year-old. While he liked the gelding's athletic moves, Juice was a bit of pickle under saddle. He'd raced just enough on the track that getting him to stay soft in the face was a challenge.

Jamey, who is known for his patience with fractious horses, gave up and turned Juice over to Ashley, who after weeks of working at a walk and trot was able to get Juice to give to pressure. It still took some time for Juice to mature, and he ran sparingly as a 5-year-old futurity horse. By his seventh year, Juice became one of the dominant open horses in the southeast.

When the open slot races took off, so did Juice's career earnings.

At Lexington, Juice won $55,306 with $40,000 coming from the High Stakes Championship.

"He just keeps doing it and doing it and doing it," said Jamey, a leading aged event rider and farrier from McAlpin, Florida. "Nerves don't ever bother me, but the last couple of big shows that I've ran him at I've got a little nervous and I don't know why. I guess I just keep wondering how many more times he can keep doing stuff like that!"

The Hunts have managed their prized equine possession carefully. He's only been to six or seven races so far this year, and most of them have been high money opportunities.

"Just the big stuff," Jamey concurred. "I try not to let him go more than a month without a run. If I run him once a month he stays good. If he's had two months off, it takes him a couple of runs to get back together."

At Virginia, they had their big money run on Friday and posted a 14.397, the fastest time of the event. They picked up an additional $12,500 on Saturday and Sunday with one run.

Jamey noted that the show has grown so much in recent years that they offered a Saturday rollover to Sunday to make it more manageable.

"It's a heckuva good show," Jamey said. He won $63,000 there with Juice and three other horses. "I think they ran about 1,000 horses. I really liked that they had it to where you could run Saturday and roll your time to Sunday if you didn't want to run again. It cut their entries in half, so they didn't have to run all night (Sunday). That thing almost ran 24 hours a day. I ran my last horse at 4 something Sunday morning, and I had to be back over there at 8 o'clock on Sunday. They're going to have to add some more days or something because it's getting so big."

Juice, ever the character, didn't stress too much about the early morning hours. Hunt and Juice had their second run about 2:30

Sunday morning.

“The middle of the night, he always lays down and sleeps for about an hour,” Jamey explained. “About an hour before I needed to get ready to run, he lays down and I thought, ‘It’s no big deal.’ It was getting closer, and it got to where we were 30 horses away and I was like, ‘Juice, you’ve got to get up!’ We were getting him ready, and Ashley was like, ‘Just scratch him. He’s won enough.’ I’m like, ‘I’m not scratching him! He gets to run once for two days of money. He’s going to run tonight!’ About 25 horses before he ran, I got him saddled and went down to warm him up. He was a little sleepy for a few minutes, but 10 horses before he ran he came back to life!”

Miller Time in Homedale...Again

Each year in the first week of June, Sutfin Performance Horses puts on the Idaho Equine Hospital Race For the Cash in Homedale, ID. The races Open is one of the biggest races in the Northwest every year. This year Skye Miller and her amazing 6 yr old mare, Dmr Im Kinda Special won the Open for the second year in a row! The pair won the lucrative Open along with the Friday & Saturday Big $ 3D and the Saturday Maturity. All told the pair snagged a tidy $10,624!

Throughout the winter and spring Skye Miller and her mom Kelsie Miller have went back and forth being the big money winners at the Northwest Barrel Races. This spring Kelsie won the Sand Cup & VGBRA Futurities while Skye was Reserve at both. This weekend was Skye's turn!

According to Equistat, Skye has earned $386,604 already in her career as of the 6/4/24 report. With her recent wins boosting her over the $400k career mark. A quick look at her Equistat report shows that most of her early wins were on A Short Night, the dam of Dmr Im Kinda Special. She rode A Short Night in her youth days through her first years of high school rodeo. Her first wins on the mare recorded by Equistat came back in 2010!

QStallions.com has Dmr Im Kinda Special at earnings of $106,535 before this weekend. The speedy sorrel mare has won at futurities and derbies over the past 3 years. Dmr Im Kinda Special is an interesting run/cow cross. By Ima Special Kindaguy, who is by Frenchmans Guy and out of a Special Leader mare, and out of A Short Night who is a pure cowhorse (Short Oak and Doc Tari bred). Ima Special Kindaguy also sired Special Kinda Pepper who won over $10k this week as well in the Heading at Royal Crown Guthrie and the Redbud Spectacular Futurities.

In the Warm Up Race, Miller broke the arena record on another one of her horses, KG Shock N Awe with a 16.264. She actually ended up winning a total of $12,669 on 4 different horses!

RDC DancingToTheLead & Hayle Gibson Stillwell & Take 1, 2 at Xtreme Million Reno

By Tanya Randall

Hayle Gibson Stillwell added $33,830 to her summer rodeo run budget in just four runs at the Xtreme Million, held May 28-June 2 in Reno, Nevada.

“That was my whole goal, knowing what the summer runs entails and how expensive it can be,” said the Redcrest, California, barrel racer. “I just wanted a little cushion to keep the stress at bay.”

Gibson finished first and second aboard her 7-year-old bay mare RDC DancingToTheLead (“Fancy”), whom she purchased as a $5,700 yearling at the 2018 BFA World Championship Sale.

“She’s just a special mare,” she said of the daughter of the late Special Leader, Easily Smashed stallion Lead The Field, out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Kari Dancer. “I don’t know how to explain her. I just have no words. She’s just incredible.”

After barely tipping a barrel to win the Santa Maria Elks Pro Rodeo by nearly two-tenths, Gibson had a long drive from the California coast to Reno, Nevada, to think about her upcoming runs.

“I had a lot of time to think about that and I wasn’t going to let that happen again,” said the owner of Cowgirl Canna CBD. “It was nothing that Fancy did. She worked incredibly well, and I was behind her and late and didn’t get my leg out of the way. I made sure that was not going to happen Saturday and lifted it at every barrel whether I needed to or not! She just went in there and made the same train track run that she does all the time and ran so hard.” She collected $28,863 total on Fancy, and another $4,967 on her homebred futurity horse Buncha Dinero (“Piper”).

Gibson raised Piper. The 5-year-old daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday is the first foal out of Gibson’s Thoroughbred mare Rambunchkie, by Bellamy Road.

“I actually ponied her on the track and watched her run once and I had to have her,” she said. “She reminded me so much of (Fallon Taylor’s) Baby Flo. I went on the back side and bought her. She was a 1D jackpot horse and I won some money on her at the pro rodeos in the circuit.”

Like Fancy, Gibson used Piper for ranch work before starting her on the pattern.

“She is extremely green,” Gibson said. “Going into her futurity year, the New Year’s race in Red Bluff (California), she had less than 100 rides lifetime and only 30 days on the barrels. She is insane for what she’s doing right now. She’s a lot like her mother. They’re different. Those Thoroughbreds have a different brain. They like to be used and they like the pressure. She’s holding it all together like she’s a lot older than she is.”

At Reno, Piper exceeded Gibson’s expectations and unfortunately cost her another nice check in the Million.

“I had fought my head so bad, going back and forth on entering her in that Million,” she admitted. “Stupid brain waves here... I got to thinking about my last run instead of focusing on the next one. I didn’t enter her because I didn’t have the confidence in myself from our last run I made on her.”

Although the mare had won the pro rodeo at Riverdale, California, and placed second at Valley Springs, California, their run at the pro rodeo in Glennville, the weekend prior was a bit of disappointment.

“It was all my fault,” Gibson admitted. “I sent her way too hard, and we went all the way to the fence. It was kind of a little wild. My thought was I need to back down and take the pressure off and get the same run every time again. So, I over-thought that next run (in Reno). She was automatic, on point and never missed a beat.”

She and Piper had the second fastest time of the event, a 16.225, that unfortunately didn’t carry over to the Million.

“I could kick myself!” Gibson laughed. “She smoked a run! I dang sure made sure she was entered the next day, and she got a piece of it in the 2D.

“There’s a lesson learned there. Always bet on your horses and never lose confidence looking back, always move forward.”

Although it did keep her from winning first through third in the Million, Gibson’s experience did illustrate one of the key components of the Xtreme races. Contestants don’t have to enter the Million. They can run for day money only if they desire.

“It makes it tough too...when you make the wrong decision,” Gibson laughed. “I’m just so incredibly thankful for the horses and the journey and for the producers. I’d like to thank the Xtreme Million crew for everything they do—the ground, the professionalism—it’s fast and efficient. I appreciate everything they do for the contestants.

“They say ‘life-changing checks,’ and it really is. You have 4- and 5D riders coming out with $10,000 checks, which is really crazy. I came out with $30,000, which is what some people make in a whole year. That’s hard for me to wrap my head around.”

rently ranked No. 20 in the WPRA World Standings with $30,121. She starts her summer run this week.

“We’re going to go a little bit,” she said. “I leave this week to go to Eagle, Idaho, and Sisters, Oregon, and Livermore (California). From there we head out to Utah and then circle back for the Reno run, and then the Fourth starts. We’re going to take the Fourth lighter than we did last year, just because I don’t want to put a whole lot of pressure on Fancy. We’re just going to go to the arenas that we know and have been to before so that I’m more prepared. We’re just going to try to capitalize on the ones that we’re going to

Michael James Boone - July 1, 1964 - June 1, 2024

Michael James Boone, 59, Tyrone, passed away unexpectedly Saturday. He was born in Altoona, son of James and Barbara (Fontanella) Boone. In addition to his loving parents, he is survived by his fiancé, Kassie Mowry of Dublin, TX; a son, Evan Boone of Tyrone; brothers: Dan Boone and wife Janice of Tyrone; Brian Boone and wife Dana of South Carolina and John Boone and wife Linda of Alexandria; and nieces and nephews: Jamie (Brad) Boone-Biondi, Matt (Emily), Corey, Nicholas, Elli (Clary) Miles, Eryn, Adam and Katie. Mike was President of Lytle's Transfer and Storage, a business that has been owned and operated by the family for over 50 years. He was one of the top sales producers for Atlas Van Lines for worldwide relocation. He was highly regarded in the industry by both clients and peers as transparent, authentic and willing to help anyone he could. He was also known throughout the world of barrel racing as a highly decorated owner and trainer. He shared his love of horses with Kassie, who also rode many of the horses he trained winning countless national rodeos and futurities. Mike had a longtime association with the Altoona Boxing Club as boxing was another passion of his. He spent many years training fighters and recently started judging events.

He took great pride in his son, Evan, and enjoyed traveling with him. Friends will be received from 4 to 7 pm on Friday, June 7, 2024 at Mauk & Yates Funeral Home, Inc., 719 N 4th Avenue, Altoona, 16601 where a funeral service will be held at 10 am on Saturday.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations may be made in Michael's honor to the Mayo Clinic where he recently received successful treatment for prostate cancer. You may make a gift online by visiting <http://www.mayoclinic.org/give>. Under "Designate my gift to" please select "Other" and type Cancer Research. Please select "Make this donation a tribute" and indicate the gift is in memory of Michael Boone.

Boone's Legacy of Horses

Michael Boone's keen eye for horses and his natural talent with horses led to him owning $2,397,917 of barrel racing winners according to Equistat as of 6/4/24. His first recorded winnings came in 1996 and he has had a good one pretty much ever since. Here's just a few of the big time horses he has had over the years: Old Fort Days Champion Marthas Smoothover; futurity, derby rodeo champion and blue hen mare Mulberry Canyon Moon; NFR Qualifier, futurity & derby champion Famous Ladies Man and most recently NFR Round winner & multiple rodeo, futurity & derby champion Force The Goodbye. These are just a few of the amazing horses he brought into the barrel racing world.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Boone family and his fiance Kassie Mowry.

Donna Gail Hill Shiller - 1943-2024

Adored Texas rodeo cowgirl Donna Gail Hill Shiller rounded the third barrel and headed home on May 24, 2024.

Born to parents Maxine and Cecil Hill on July 15, 1943, Donna Gail grew up in Oak Hill (now part of southwest Austin, Texas) where her family operated Hill's Arena. The constant activity at the arena – weekly buck-outs, practice ropings, and rodeos – fueled Donna's love for horses and competition. She was an accomplished barrel racer and horsewoman, active across eight decades.

In 1965, Donna married cowboy and livestock man Donald Lee Shiller. Their nearly 50 years together exemplified tremendous love, affection, and commitment to each other and their family. They spent most of their years in Taylor, Texas, where Don operated the Taylor Livestock Auction. They were busy with the auction barn and being parents to their daughter, Dawn. They supported her activities like dancing, twirling, and livestock showing, and hauled her to youth and high school rodeos across the state. When Dawn and her husband Trey Sizemore had children, Donna and Don embraced their roles as grandparents to Tiffany and Tandi. They adored their granddaughters and were proud of their achievements.

Through it all, barrel racing remained Donna's personal passion. If you ever saw her riding down the alley with her hat pulled down tightly, you saw sheer determination. She competed in the National High School Finals Rodeo in 1961 and the National Finals Rodeo in 1964. She also qualified for the 1963 National Finals and, despite not competing in that year's NFR, finished 14th in the year-end standings. Donna then spent decades competing (and winning!) in open rodeos, barrel racing associations, and most recently, senior rodeos.

A true horsewoman, she won more than a dozen trophy saddles on multiple barrel horses. Donna loved her horses. Her brown eyes would light up when she talked about each one, and she was especially proud of the ones she trained and finished.

She was inducted into the South Central Texas Rodeo Ring of Honor in 2015, the Central Texas Rodeo Hall of Fame in 2022, and the Texas Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame in 2023.

Donna is preceded in death by her beloved husband Don Shiller, her parents Cecil and Maxine Hill, her uncle Hudson Hill and his wife Patty, her uncle Jay Carson and his wife Winnie, and her niece Patches Hill Tomlinson.

She is survived by her companion Sonny Owen of Lexington, Texas. Donna considered the past few years with Sonny to be a wonderful blessing and was grateful for him, their shared love of rodeo, horses, and intertwined histories. She was a wonderful sister to Alford and Carolyn Hill of Round Mountain, Texas, and a terrific aunt to nephew Hoyt Hill and his wife Caroline of Austin, Texas. Donna is also survived by the Sizemore family, including her great-grandson Legend, as well as her grand-nieces and grand-nephews Macy Mayfield, Ty Tomlinson, Garrett Hill, and Sadie Hill. In addition, Donna leaves behind cousins, extended family, and close friends whom she considered family.

Donna was a role model and mentor to many men and women in rodeo and in life. She will be remembered for her kind-hearted nature, always wanting to look her best, and for the lengthy, meaningful conversations she had with family and friends. There was no such thing as a "short phone call" with her.

Donna Gail loved the Lord. Recently, she even surprised herself by her growing confidence in sharing her testimony and the Good News by handing out Bibles to friends and acquaintances. While we mourn her earthly parting, we take solace knowing that she was saved by His grace and greeted into His kingdom. "Well done, good and faithful servant."

On Thursday May 30, Providence Funeral Home in Taylor will host visitation from 12PM-2PM, followed by the funeral service at 2PM. Graveside service will then be at Taylor City Cemetery.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I made a firm decision when I was about 12 to NEVER, EVER, NEVER, NEVER, EVER enter a judged event! We shouldn't be so cynical at 12, but I was. Why not? Because every judge, no matter how ethical, has their opinion. How in the world can we ever know if that opinion is right?

This week, this judge likes this particular thing. Next week, the next judge has his/her opinion of what is desirable. How can we ever know? It's not like you can start over from week to week to adjust for the current trends. So, I just enter timed events and save myself a lot of headache! LOL!

But there is one judge who never changes. Jesus. You can read the Bible and know exactly what is expected of you. Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever, so it's not like you'll be guessing from week to week.

When we stand before Him on that great day, we'll give an account of ourselves. Romans 14:10-13. And if we have asked Jesus to be our Lord, our judgment will be "Not guilty!" John 5:24-30.
