Spurred Up – Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Win First Reno Rodeo Title

By Tanya Randall

After a string of second-place finishes, Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday won their first set of spurs for the coveted Reno Rodeo Championship. The win at the historic $70,000-added in the “Biggest Little City In The World” was worth $16,081.

“I wanted to win Reno so bad,” said the four-time WPRA World Champion from Cotulla, Texas. “I knew I had the horse to win Reno and I really wanted that accolade for her, and for me too. It’s a cool rodeo. It’s kind of a tough format with the two runs (in one day, first round slack in the morning, second round performance in the evening), knowing that I had the horse that clearly could do it and was competitive there. I so wanted it to work out.”

Kinsel and Sis started their quest on Wednesday. They were 17.27 in the morning slack and 17.21 in the evening’s perf to placed second and sixth in each round, respectively, to be leading the aggregate thus far.

Kinsel then flew back to Texas for the West of the Pecos Pro Rodeo on Thursday night.

She and TR Judges Doll (“Reese”) powered through the heavy sand to place and earned some Pro Rodeo Tour points, necessary for qualifying for the lucrative playoff rodeos at the season’s end in September.

“I wanted to leave Reese home to rest up for the summer,” Kinsel explained. “My goal is to be able to trade her out with one of the two I have with me now. Hopefully, I’ll get to the point that Sis can go home and just hang out, but I’ll just play that by ear. I didn’t want to bump Reese around in the trailer when I don’t have a lot of runs for her. I’ve pretty much entered everything in July for Sis. I’m not really planning on riding much else except Spyder (BCK Spyder Monkey) at a few that Sis doesn’t love.”

Back in Reno, Kassie Mowry and Famous Ladies Man (“Emmitt”) bumped Kinsel and Sis to second in the aggregate going into the short round on Saturday. Emily Beisel and 4M Equine’s Teasin Dat Guy took the lead on three runs after posting the fastest time of the rodeo, a 16.99, in the short. Kinsel and Sis were a few hundredths behind with a 17.06 to retake the lead. Only Mowry and Emmitt could catch them, but a costly tip of the third barrel took them out of contention.

While many of the world standings contenders headed to Canada early, Kinsel decided to stay stateside.

“I wanted to go to Reno,” she explained. “I left Texas early because I wanted to get my Canada paperwork started so I could prove I’ve been out of Texas for when I go to Calgary. I’ve just had good luck with these Utah rodeos, starting in June and going out to Reno and staying central and close together over the Fourth, so I don’t have a lot of miles.

“I feel like I have a good amount of runs but not very many miles. That was kind of my goal for the year. (Sis’s) ready to make runs but I don’t want to be driving her around to all of them too, so I decided to not run up to Canada, even though we know she likes Ponoka. I’ve had a lot of success at those rodeos up there in the past, but it seemed to work out better this time to stay more south and central as long as I could. I will head up there for Calgary, of course.”

With Sis being 13, Kinsel is trying to continue the mare’s careful

Montana, in the morning and Cody, Wyoming, on July 4. "I'm trying to be really careful and run her in setups that she'll really thrive in and handle," she said of the daughter of six-time WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em. "We've had good wins at rodeos that I wouldn't necessarily say were her favorite setups; she just handled. I think now that she's older she's benefiting from the places that I know she's going to like, ones that she thinks are fun. I want to keep her having fun. When she's having fun and wanting it, she just runs balls out!"

Kinsel currently sits fifth in the WPRA World Standings with $68,087 as of the rodeos that concluded by June 30. Rodeo stand-

Birthright – MCM Tres A Legacy & Jolene Montgomery Collect $61,763 at Ruby Buckle West

By Tanya Randall

Royally bred MCM Tres A Legacy (“Tiffany”) is living up to her birthright.

The 4-year-old gray daughter of $8.1 million dollar barrel horse sire Tres Seis, out of the 1.2 million dollar producer Mulberry Canyon Moon, by Marthas Six Moons, added a second futurity championship, plus an open average victory, for a $61,763 payday at the Ruby Buckle West, held June 25-29 in South Jordan, Utah.

Trained and ridden by Jolene Montgomery for the mare’s owners and breeders Matt and Bendi Dunn, Tiffany has total earnings of $152,346 thus far with several major futurities left for the year.

Montgomery, who trains out of Purdon, Texas, skipped the Run at the Rose Futurity due to a Tahitian vacation with her husband Kerby. She headed west for the Colorado Classic and Ruby West with three futurity horses and three colts for 2025.

At the Classic, the duo felt in a familiar yet heartbreaking pattern. After placing in the first round, the recently crowned Old Fort Days Futurity Champions tipped a barrel to win the second round.

“With one of the fastest times of the event too,” lamented Montgomery. “I was just sick! I wanted to vomit!”

In the interim between the two futurities, Montgomery focused on adding a little more bend to Tiffany’s turns.

“She does want to get to a stop three quarters of the way around the first...well, a little at all three barrels...and then flatten out and come over herself,” she explained. “It’s not a bad thing, but too much of a good thing makes me drag barrels over. She doesn’t want to cheat. It’s just on the backside she wants to square up and power out of there and when she does it a hair too soon, that’s when we drag barrels. The only thing I did was try to smooth out that spot where she likes to square up too much. I just kept loping around the barrels until she stayed smooth and round, but I do that anyway between barrel races. She just wants to win.”

At Ruby, Tiffany made up for the costly mistake at the Classic.

“She was great!” said Montgomery, one of the sport’s all time leading riders and trainers. “I knew when she clocked great the first round that it was hers to win as long as I kept it clean.”

They were less than five hundredths (.05) behind first go winners Famous Sophie and Kassie Mowry for second in the first round and turned in the fastest time of the futurity, a 15.855, to win the second round and futurity aggregate.

“The first day she was a little ornery, which I was glad that she felt good, but I had to warm her up a little bit more because she was being a brat. She was really wanting to square up on her barrels, so I trotted and loped her through four or five times in the warmup pen before I ran because she’ll let you. A lot of horses you can’t do that with because they’ll get upset. She doesn’t.”

“The second day, she was quieter than she was the first day, so I went to the outdoor pen and opened her up a little bit out of everyone’s way. Then I went over to the warmup pen and loped her through twice and she was perfect on the pattern, but a little too quiet. So, I breezed her again!”

Montgomery was also happy to have Tiffany finally get her a win in Utah. In fact, Montgomery had often skipped futurities there because she hadn’t had enough luck to make it worth the long haul. “I’m really glad I finally broke my curse out there, because I’ve taken a lot of butt kicking out there. I’ve never had any luck at

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “She’s pretty easy. I always give them several days off after a big race like that when I can. I start back with an easy ride and then we’ll work barrels for a couple of days. If I haven’t made a run in a couple of weeks, I’ll breeze her through at home. A big thing with her—I haven’t had to do this with any other horse—is I breeze her a lot, at home around the arena or in the warmup pen before I run her. She’s so quiet. You’ve got to get her a little amped up.”

Salina or Heber and I took good horses!” Tiffany’s next futurity will be the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming, so she’s getting some much needed turnout time now. “She’s getting about two to three weeks in the pasture just chilling,” said Montgomery. “Tiff was happy to be home. I’m not going to touch her for at least three weeks. That’s okay, because she kind of likes being a pasture pony.”

Fame Aint Easy For Ruby Buckle Derby Champion Olivia Train, Wins $31,965

By Tanya Randall

Olivia Train almost didn't make it to the Ruby Buckle West, held June 25-29 in South Jordan, Utah. On her way there from her Myrtle Point, Oregon, home, Train was sideswiped by an oncoming car that totaled her trailer.

Thankfully her horses were ok.

"It was pretty bad," said Train. "The next day I got up and they seemed fine. My friends were like, 'You've got to go!' I was pretty hesitant. 'Should we throw them in the trailer and haul them all the way to Utah?' I thought I would just see how they looked when I got there and if I needed to draw out, I would."

Train also wondered if her mare Fame Aint Easy ("Addi") would handle the altitude and heat coming from the Oregon coast. Addi was more than OK, winning the Derby aggregate, placing in the Open aggregate as well as the Ruby Rookie and Owner/Rider side-pots for total earnings of $31,965.

"She just rose and rose and rose," said Train. "She just stepped up and got stronger the longer we were there."

Addi was 16.231 in the first round and 16.077 in the second round.

"I figured that she'd be a little better the second day," said Train, who works as a dental hygienist. "They've got quite a bit different ground in Utah than we have in Western Oregon. It took her a little bit to get used to it. I figured that she was feeling it out. I figured that she'd run quite a bit harder the second day, so I just wanted to keep everything the same."

Train also made both of her runs in split reins, rarely touched the saddle horn and lost a stirrup during one of her runs.

"I didn't even realize that I had lost a stirrup," Train admitted. "I was just trying to stay with her. She is so smooth when she runs like that. She made it pretty easy on me."

Train made the switch to split reins hoping to eliminate the mare's tendency to get scotchy in the barrels.

"She's really kind of hard to ride. She loves to turn. I found if I ride in split reins I don't drop my outside rein, which is helpful with her. If I drop my outside rein and sit too deep, she really sucks back, and I hit a lot of barrels. I started riding in split reins and it started working so that's what I've gone with—just try to stay out of her way and not drop that outside rein. It makes me ride a little more honest I think."

Train purchased Addi, a daughter of $4 million dollar sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet, as a weanling from her breeder Kelly McCormmach because she was a half sister to her good rodeo horse Ought To Streak, whom she also bought from McCormmach. Both horses were out of the Behold A Beduino mare Beholda Star Is Born.

Train had a lot of success with Ought To Streak, including a 2019 Columbia River Circuit Finals Championship.

"I bought all the ones I could out of that mare after the first one turned out," Train explained.

Sadly, Train lost Streak to colic earlier this year. Luckily, Addi stepped up to fill her sister's shoes.

"Addi really stepped it up this year," she said. "I ran her as a 5-year-old futurity horse, and she did okay. This is really the first year that she's come like she has now. She's done more than I could ever imagine so the rest is going to be a fun ride."

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: "I'm really lucky. I have a big hill behind my house so we kind of split it between long trotting in the arena, some interval training and a lot of hill riding. She's actually a pretty nice head horse, so I get to rope on her some too."

SPECIAL THANKS: Train said there were many special people that she wanted to thank, especially those who helped her with her accident on the way to the Ruby Buckle. "The Cantwells (Dave and Jennifer) came and got me and let me borrow their trailer to get to the Ruby Buckle. There were so many people that helped me, but they literally gave me their trailer to take. I wouldn't have made it without them."

Chloe Edwards and TR Chicks Love Cash Win National Junior High Finals Rodeo

By Britany Diaz

Chloe Edwards had a great week in Des Moines, IA at the National Junior High Finals Rodeo, held June 23-29 at the Iowa State Fairgrounds. Aspiring young rodeo athletes from all of the United States, Mexico, & Canada competed in their events to see who would come out on top.

Edwards, from Jackson, WY, claimed the championship title in the barrel racing with an average time of 46.17 in three runs. In Round One, Edwards finished fourth with a 15.644. She took three-tenths off of her time in Round Two, placing sixth, with a 15.374. Edwards made the Short Go, consisting of the top 20 on two runs, sitting second in the average. In the Final Round, Edwards ran the fastest time of the week, running a 15.152, securing her NJHFR Championship.

Chloe and her horse, Jagger were the first to compete in the short go at Des Moines. Edwards mother, Jodi, shared, "We had to hold our breath the entire remaining nineteen runs. It was cool that Chloe was first out and got to run her own race and not be chasing anyone. She kept her cool." It was a salty race, but Edwards came out on top.

Edwards is from Jackson, Wyoming in the summer, but makes her home in Wickenburg, AZ throughout the winter. She competed at the NJHFR for the state of Arizona. The 13-year-old cowgirl, traveled to Des Moines with her parents and her twin sister, Mylie. It was fun for her family to be able to be there with her for this win. Her brother, Jaden, stayed home to take care of the rest of the family's horses, but still followed the NJHFR action.

Edwards and her partner, TR Chicks Love Cash, better known as Jagger, won their biggest title-to-date in Des Moines. Jagger, is an 8-year-old grey gelding, owned by Chloe's parents, Brian and Jodi Edwards. Chloe shared, "He is my unicorn. He is perfect and funny."

Both Chloe and Jagger have barrel racing bred into them. Chloe's mother, Jodi, trains futurity colts and runs barrels. Jagger, is by TR Illuminator Cash, the full brother to NFR standout, TR Dashing Badger, better known as Dolly. When you combine an equine athlete with a knowledgeable young rider, there is a winning outcome.

"Jagger is more of a push-style horse, depending on the arena. He is big, at 15.3 hands tall. When he gets to the bigger, open pens, he does run more free, but he is pretty much perfect in any set-up," shared Edwards. "In Des Moines, the ground was a little more firm, which he likes. The arena was smaller as well." He also handled the traveling like a champ. "When we left Jackson, It was 30 degrees in the morning. The day before it got down to 20 degrees and it snowed. We were blanketing again. Prior to that, we had left Arizona, where it was 100 degrees. When we got to Des Moines, the horses were dripping sweat. He has been in all four seasons within the last couple of weeks. He is such a good-minded horse. He has a big heart and would do anything for me. My sister, brother and I all team rope on him on the heading side as well."

This big win has set Chloe up for some bigger things in the future. She plans to high school rodeo next year. "I am excited to see what he can do next year against the high school girls," said Edwards. The competition is tough no matter where you go, but we have no doubt that Chloe and Jagger will hold their own.

Not only did Chloe and Jagger leave with the title of NJHFR Champions, but they also won a Gist Silversmith World Champion Buckle, a Tod Slone World Champion Saddle, a Yeti cooler, a pair of Bex sunglasses, a Performance Stall Mat, Professional Choice therapeutic fly sheet, a pair of Hyer Boots, $150 towards an American Hat Company hat, a pair of casual Ariat shoes, a World Champion jacket from Carroll Original Wear, a bucket of Platinum from Platinum Performance, 2 World Champion certificates from

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Happy 4th of July! What a blessing to live in the USA! This week, I would like to talk about who we trust.

I heard a preacher say, "Anything you trust in, make sure it's big enough to deliver you!" Their message was about tithing. (If you don't know, the tithe is 10% of your monetary increase. It belongs to God. And, we are to bring it to the local church.)

Horses have been a part of my life forever. A wonderful, frustrating, happy, challenging, BIG part of my life! LOL! And when I was young, they were my life saver.

So, when I read in Psalm 20:7, "Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; But we will remember the name of the Lord our God.," it was an eye opener.

What? I can't trust horses? Well, then, who CAN you trust?! God.

Obviously, He is our deliverer. Not horses, not the government, not our spouse, not our job, not our own brilliant plans and ideas.

God. And HE IS BIG ENOUGH TO DELIVER US!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
