Kassie Mowry & KL Touch Of Heaven Sweep Open & Futurity at Breeders Challenge Finale

Kassie Mowry and KL Touch Of Heaven ("Dove") added $113,125 to their career earnings with dual titles in the $450,000 70 Ranch Performance Horses Futurity and $150,000 Hart Trailers Open at the Breeders Challenge Finale, held September 14-17 at the Will Rogers Complex in Fort Worth, Texas.

"It was a first class event," said the leading rider from Dublin, Texas. "I came home with some incredible prizes. I want to thank Lainie (Whitmire) and the sponsors for putting it together. I loved the payout. They adjusted the payout so it paid more places and wasn't so top heavy. We had a fun time at the party. It's just a top-notch event."

Mowry has now won with the 4-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, out of Karma Loftin's great producer Junior Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr. Their first futurity championship came in the same arena at the Patriot this past winter. Since then, they've won the Ruby Buckle Guthrie Futurity in April, Royal Crown futurities in Waco, Texas, and Rock Springs, Wyoming, and now the Breeders Challenge Finale.

They qualified for the Finale in both the open and futurity in Memphis, Tennessee, in May. It was the first Breeders Challenge Qualifier that Mowry and Dove had entered as they had skipped the Kinder Cup qualifier in favor of the Royal Crown in Buckeye, Arizona.

Their first run at the Finale was in the $150,000 Hart Trailers Open. They stopped the clock in an incredible 14.998 to win $13,125--$7,875 to Mowry as the owner, $3,937.50 to JL Dash Ta Heaven and $1,312.50 to Loftin, who nominated Dove to the Breeders Challenge program.

Surprisingly, Mowry made a bit change for the run, changing from a shanked Spur Up 03 to a full gag Spur Up 04.

"I've been wanting to switch bits on him for a quite a while, but he's been running really good," she explained. "I was really having a hard time trying to find when to do it, because every time I run him, it's for really big money. I don't really jackpot on him. I thought I'll use the Open as my test to see if he likes this bit, just because I thought it was a longshot for a futurity colt because they always stack up in the open."

The run ended up being Dove's fastest time all week.

"The bit gave me what I've been needing with him," she said. "It gave me the feeling that I had been looking for, so I just continued with it."

Mowry did get to make a pass through the pattern at her home with the bit before running at the Breeders Challenge.

"We finally got some rain and I was able to put some (drag) teeth in the ground," she said. "That's been a struggle this year. I finally got the ground really good and I was able to make a little practice pass earlier in the week. He felt really good with it. I'm not afraid to make a change with him. I know him really well and he's got a good mouth. At this point, he's really broke good so I didn't think it was going to be a complete failure. I didn't know if it was going to give me a couple thousands or tenths or if I was going to lose it. I didn't think it was going to be a bomb at any point. I was just hoping it would give me a little more help."

Mowry was just looking for a little more shape going into and through her turns.

"The bit I had been using had a little bit of shank to it so he's comeback a little more instant. This just helped soften up the front side of his turns so he could hold a little bit more shape through his body through it and he doesn't have to make such a big move on the backside. Sometimes if he makes a big move on the backside the ground doesn't hold him or I felt like he might start coming back and tipping barrels because he was coming back so hard. Earlier in the year, he needed the shank bit for more rate because he was a lot freer running. The whole futurity year is a series of adjustments with them because they're growing, changing and evolving. You have to be flexible that way and grow with them."

Their next run was the Semifinal for the $450,000 70 Ranch Performance Horses Futurity. They finished fourth with a 15.171 to earn a spot in the Finals.

“Those are the nerve wracking runs!” she chuckled. “I know my horse shuts the clock off. Don’t hit a barrel!”

In the Finals on Saturday night, Mowry sent Dove hard into the first barrel and smoked the second and third barrel to win the Futurity Finals Championship with a 15.223; topping Reserve Champion Blazin Babe Olena and Brittany Tonozzi by a mere 0.014 of a second!

Their 15.223 was worth $100,000 with $60,000 going to Mowry, $30,000 to his sire and $10,000 to Loftin.

Mowry and Dove have the Ardmore Futurity this weekend, but he’ll have to sit out while Sir Epic, Force The Goodbye and CP He Will Be Epic run at the Pink Buckle.

During the Breeders Challenge, Mowry also ran in slack at the Abilene, Texas, pro rodeo. She’s currently 10th in the WPRA World Standings with $92,553 and needed to attend 25 rodeos to be eligible to enter the National Finals Rodeo.

Mowry has met her rodeo count but she plans on getting one more rodeo in for the 2022 season just to be safe. With her draw at Stephenville, Texas, falling on exhibition day at the Ardmore Futurity, she’ll likely make her last rodeo run for the 2022 rodeo season at the Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth on September 30.

Briggs & Famous Lil Jet Dominate Breeders Challenge Finale Derby

By Tanya Randall

This past spring WPRA World Champion Jordon Briggs took time out of her busy rodeo schedule to attend the Lucky Dog Futurity and Derby in Memphis, Tennessee, simply because it was the only Breeders Challenge qualifier that fit into her schedule. She and her great horse Famous Lil Jet (“Rollo”) topped that Derby and parlayed it into a $50,000 Breeders Challenge Finale 100X Equine Open Derby Championship.

“Memphis paid so good it was worth just going to that,” said the current WPRA World Standings Leader with $177,209. “The Finale with no entry fees was just an added bonus!”

Briggs wanted to thank her sponsors as well as Lainie Whitmire and Jade Ford for all their hard work in making the Breeders Challenge Finale an exceptional event.

“They make it very user friendly and not confusing,” said Briggs. “I like how they show up to all the qualifiers and answer questions. I was just going through all the stuff I had won. They came up with some different and neat awards for it. They did a really great job.”

Briggs and Rollo started her Breeders Challenge Finale with a run in the $150,000 Hart Trailers Open, where they placed sixth, earning $2,625, with a 15.250.

“Rollo had a month off prior,” said Briggs. After a very successful summer run, Briggs had returned to her Tolar, Texas, home following the Dodge City Roundup in early August. “I went to Abilene last week just to get a run in before Breeders Challenge. He worked good in the Open on Wednesday. I knew the more that I ran him the sharper he would be. He’s not the kind of horse that’s sharp and perfect his first run back because he gains so much weight when he’s on break. He has to be in the trailer being hauled and run to be in that sharp fit shape.”

Their second run was in the $250,000 100X Equine Open Derby Semifinals.

“I knew it was going to be a tough sucker,” said Briggs, who won the qualifying round in 15.129.

In the short round, Briggs said Rollo “just laid it down,” turning in the fastest run of the event, a 14.908, last on the ground—at the Finale, the ground was worked every three runners instead of the traditional five.

“My first two runs I was like the only one in that drag and was first on the ground,” Briggs explained. “When I drew third on the ground I thought ‘Oh man, I hope I can still be as fast as I need to be to do well in this thing because the competition level of these derby horses is just insane!’”

At 8, Rollo, a Busby Quarter Horses-bred Dash Ta Fame gelding out of the Blazin Jetolena, Lady Perks mare, Blazin Black Beauty, is in his last year of derby eligibility. The Breeders Challenge led the charge to change the industry standard of two years of derby eligibility to three, when they opened theirs up to 8-year-olds last year.

“I did appreciate that everyone is opening up the derbies to older horses,” said Briggs. “I think it’s going to help the industry and make these horses worth more money, not just for rodeo. To be able to run at this kind of money when they’re older is just awesome.”

Briggs also likes how the breeders incentives in general have put more focus on older futurity horses as well.

“I love the money in the breeders incentives,” she said. “I love that they are taking the pressure off of 3-year-olds. It used to be the Juvenile and the slot races were the biggest money we ran at. While I do feel we’re cornering our gene pool a little bit, it does take the pressure of these horses so early in their career to make them last longer and be able to run at this kind of money for longer instead of that first six months.”

Briggs said with her rodeo schedule, running 5-year-olds (futurity

With the 2022 rodeo season coming to an end, Briggs will make her last run at Stephenville, Texas, this weekend, and then Rollo will get another break until the WPRA World Finals in November. She and her husband Justin are also going to Malta, Italy, for 10 days in October for the Gold Buckle Barrel Race.

“It’s going to be a long trip but we’re excited about it,” she said. Their daughter Bexley is skipping the 12-hour international flight to spend time with her two grandmothers. “I didn’t want to take Bexley on a 12-hour flight,” laughed Briggs. “I barely want to do it, let alone with a toddler!”

Bridesmaid No More – Kacey Gartner and Rebel Look Conquer Pendleton’s Green Mile

By Tanya Randall

Kacey Gartner and her homebred mare Rebel Look (“Mercedes”) conquered the football known as “The Green Mile” at the $40,000-added Pendleton Roundup in Oregon to collect $12,470.

“I’m still trying to soak it in and realize what happened,” said the defending Columbia River Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion. “What a blessing! I feel like all the stars aligned and everything worked out. Honestly, it’s not me. That mare left her mark there. She loves that pen!”

The Walla Walla, Washington, based duo had finished second in the aggregate twice before in 2018 and 2019. They tipped a barrel to finish second in the long round last year after the Covid hiatus in 2020.

Running across the grass football field to the barrels on the surrounding dirt track isn’t for the faint of heart.

“No matter how many times I’ve done it, I was sick to my stomach thinking about it,” she said. “I didn’t sleep at night the whole week going into it. You work the courage up to do it once and it’s amazing you get to do it a second time, but you still get nervous. Once you get on the grass and start warming up, all of that goes away. You could overthink it way too much.

“Everyone needs to do it at least once in their life. It’s a bucket list thing to do.”

While her husband Chance, a steer wrestler, and son Jaxon were in attendance to celebrate in person, her daughter Paige had to be at a high school rodeo.

“The coolest thing is another girl’s mom took a video of her watching me run live, so I got to see her reaction,” said Gartner through tears. “That was a pretty special moment that she still got to be a part of it.”

Gartner and Mercedes had led the first round of the rodeo since the last drag of slack, where they clocked a 28.57. They were second in the short go with a 28.54.

“My whole approach is trying to keep her as calm as possible on the long walk up to the timer because it’s such a long run after that,” she explained. “I want to save as much wind as I can. I stay on the dirt. I just creep her up there as far as I can and let her get a good first barrel and then I let her pick her pace across. I’ll hustle her a little and then set down and coast into the second.

“She didn’t want to coast into the second barrel in the short round. She was on a mission across there and it sent us by the second a little. I always try to still have good turns. Sometimes that’s hard to do when you’re going that fast, but I know she’s fast enough to make up for a little bit. It’s the same thing going to the third, just try to have a good turn and hustle home. I think that’s her favorite part because I swear she gains speed on the way home.”

Having run a horse to the right as well at Pendleton, Gartner said she thinks taking the left barrel first, which is against the colorful bucking chutes, as she does with Mercedes is advantageous over horses that take the grandstand barrel first to the right.

“Running at all those colors you can’t see the barrel that well running across that far,” she explained. “Even if we see it, I don’t know if the horses can see it out of all the colors over there, so I do feel going to the left has a little advantage.”

Having a well-broke horse also helps, she said.

“She’s so broke she stays square right between the reins where I need to be,” Gartner added. “If I stay where I need to be she stays right up underneath me. I know how far out, the distance I need to be—at that speed I need to give her a little more room—I find that spot and ride right to that spot.”

Gartner said she doesn’t do anything special to get Mercedes ready for the Green Mile.

“I just try to keep them as conditioned as possible, just a lot of loping and a lot of long trotting,” she said. “I try to keep their air up. We do probably rope on her more before Pendleton than we do any other time of the year. We can breakaway and heel steers on her. Everything we do is more to keep her in tune to me and as soft and supple as can be so if I have to handle her I get an immediate response. That’s the main thing I focus on is just keeping her soft in my hands to where if I need to manage her, I can.”

Gartner raised the 10-year-old daughter of JD Look out of the Twynas Dash mare Jo Jos Dasher. She now has several by the late stallion owned by Brad and Karen Gleason.

“I love those horses,” she said. “They fit me and fit my program. I love their personalities. They’re so easy to take to the barrels. They’re great horses.

“The one my daughter won the Silver States Invitational on this summer is by JD Look. The backup that I’m hauling is another, owned by Brad and Karen Gleason. I’ve got a 4- and 2-year-old at the house that I’ve got to get going.”

of time to get the young ones running.

"My daughter is another year out from getting her (WPRA) permit," she explained. "She just turned 17. I always told her that I was seasoning Mercedes for her to be able to go when she gets her permit."

In the meanwhile, she and Mercedes have another circuit title to chase.

"This year has been really good," Gartner said. "I started off our year with a win at our very first rodeo in Redmond (Oregon). I was encouraged by a couple of my friends that it was time to leave the circuit, so we went down to Redding and a few of the California rodeos. I was just out of the money at a few of those. I rodeoed the month of June in our circuit and then I left the month of July because I had qualified for the NFR Open (in Colorado Springs). I placed there in a round. I came back and had a consistent August. I placed at quite a few rodeos."

Gartner's Pendleton win bumped her from seventh in the Columbia River Circuit Standings to second.

"I'm excited to go back to the circuit finals," she said. "I'm hoping I can get the average win again so I can qualify to go back to the NFR Open next year."

She's also looking forward to a little down time this fall.

BUBBLE WATCH

Reno Rodeo and Dodge City Roundup Champion Michelle Darling is holding the coveted 15th spot with $79,572. She's staying on the central loop of rodeos. She's out in Springhill, Louisiana, on Thursday, New Braunsfels, Texas, on Friday, Amarillo, Texas, on Saturday and finishing up at Stephenville, Texas, on Sunday.

Lisa Lockhart made a $6,617 jump this past weekend, winning checks at Pendleton, Oregon, Othello, Washington, and Albuquerque, New Mexico. She is just $1,794.22 behind Darling.

2020 WPRA Rookie of the Year Paige Jones is right on Lockhart's heels and $2,107.98 out of 15th. Jones is taking the less is more approach, pinning her NFR hopes on runs in Stephenville on Friday and Amarillo on Saturday.

2022 Rookie Contender Taycie Matthews jumped to within $2,791.68 of 15th with a $3,275 weekend. Her travel plans are currently up in the air thanks to a truck malfunction in Rock Springs, Wyoming. She has a college rodeo this weekend, and she's entered in Mona, Utah, and Omaha, Nebraska.

NFR veteran Cheyenne Wimberley has a tough row to hoe, behind $4,501.41. She has two routes in the works—one on the traditional last chance California run with a couple of Texas rodeos and the other working towards her hometown rodeo in Stephenville. She'll run in Mona on Wednesday, Amarillo on Thursday, Poway, California on Friday, San Bernardino, California, on Saturday, and Stephenville, Texas, on Sunday, or Springhill on Friday, New Braunsfels on Saturday and then Stephenville.

Fans can keep up with their schedules under the results tab on ProRodeo.com. There you can find draw sheets for each rodeo. The grid view will also give you the times for all the contestants that have competed, not just those currently in money positions.

2022 Sorrel Colt by FIREWATER CANYON
Paid into Pink & Ruby Buckle!

$5,500

BUY HIM SOON & PICK HIS REGISTERED NAME!

Firewater Canyon-By Bys Meter Maid, Dr Meter Reader SI 91

Big strong gentle colt, great to handle, very gentle!

Firewater Canyon has sired pro rodeo money earners and futurity money earners with very limited colts. His best years are coming as a sire. The dam of this colt ran 1D/2D and was a tie down horse.

Her colts are high desire and athletic.

Her oldest by A Smooth Guy is a calf roping horse.

WCRA Announces Nomination Segments Will Now Be Open for a 6 month time frame

--Rodeo Corpus Christi Segment Opens October 10 and Closes April 9--

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) recently announced that nominations for Rodeo Corpus Christi will open October 10 and close April 9. The segment opening at an earlier date is part of an ongoing effort to create consistency to keep each segment open for six months allowing athletes to have more opportunity to earn points.

"Previously, one segment would close and the next would open creating a limited timeframe to nominate and earn points pending the time of year," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "This six-month window will not only allow athletes a better opportunity to qualify, but it gives athletes a greater opportunity to climb the ranks and compete for a top spot."

WCRA also announced that all Rodeo Corpus Christi nomination points earned from October 10 - November 27, 2022, will count towards the 2022 Reliance Ranches VRQ Points Champion Bonus leaderboard; an annual award that will pay a $25,000 cash bonus to each athlete who earns the most VRQ (Virtual Rodeo Qualifier) points in their discipline. All points earned after November 27, 2022 will count towards the 2023 VRQ Points Champion Bonus. Details on the 2023 bonus will be released at a later date.

This effort will not affect the year-long segments including the Women's Rodeo World Championship segment, the Rodeo Corpus Christi Steer Roping segment, or the WCRA Division Youth segment.

Rodeo Corpus Christi will play host to the first stop to the 2023 WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR). The first 2023 WCRA Major Rodeo will be held May 10-13 and historically has paid out $550,000 with each champion earning $15,000. Format information to be released at a later date.

The TCR is a series of annual major rodeo events which includes an annual bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in any three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events are all featured in CBS Television network broadcasts each year.

RC Landingham (Hat Creek, California), a 32-year-old bareback rider has positioned himself to win the Triple Crown of Rodeo. For Landingham, fresh off his win at July's Utah Days of '47 Rodeo, the event marked his second consecutive WCRA Major, putting him in contention to be a millionaire. If Landingham triumphs at the Cowtown Christmas Championship rodeo, he will be the first victor of the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo $1 Million Bonus.

Rodeo athletes from all over the globe are eligible to qualify to compete at Rodeo Corpus Christi through the innovative WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). The top athletes on the WCRA Rodeo Corpus Christi Leaderboard in each discipline will compete for their piece of the over $550,000 purse, across 10 disciplines which include - Bareback Riding, Women's Breakaway Roping, Saddle Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, Steer Roping, Team Roping (Heading and Heeling), Tie-Down Roping, Barrel Racing, and Bull Riding. The top eight timed events athletes from the DY23 Junior leaderboard will also be able to enter 2023 Rodeo Corpus Christi.

Rodeo Corpus Christi, hosted on the Corpus Christi Bayfront, takes place during the annual Buccaneer Days Festival in early-May, bringing together more than 120,000 attendees to promote tradition and community pride in the Coastal Bend by producing exceptional family entertainment that results in educational scholarships.

Contract Personnel announced for Wrangler NFR, NFSR

NFR is Dec. 1-10 in Las Vegas and NFSR is Nov. 4-5 in Mulvane, Kan.

The contract personnel for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Teton Ridge and the National Finals Steer Roping were announced Tuesday by the PRCA.

For the ninth time in 10 years, two of the announcers for the Wrangler NFR remain the same. Randy Corley and Wayne Brooks will be on the microphone for the 10 nights in Las Vegas Dec. 1-10. They will be joined by announcer Roger Mooney.

Corley, who was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2017, will be making his 20th NFR appearance, while it will be the 10th of Brooks' career. Mooney will be making his sixth appearance at the NFR.

Livestock superintendent John Barnes makes his 17th consecutive Wrangler NFR appearance. The assistant livestock superintendent is Kenny Barringer. Floyd Campbell is the saddle horse boss.

The chute bosses are Tony Amaral (timed events) and Tom Neuens (roughstock).

Sunni Deb Backstrom, who was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2021, is the NFR secretary, marking the 17th year in a row she has been selected. Jennie Mur-

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In our culture, it is very rare to find a man, and a lot of women, that aren't packing a knife... or a gun. But today's article is about knives.

I have this pathetic little thing in my pocket for cutting hay strings. Wouldn't hurt a fly. Mike's is like a razor blade. He's always buying knives. I think he has acquired three in the last three weeks. I can tell how sharp they are initially by the number of bandaids wrappers in the bathroom. The newest one is deadly!

As a grandma, I also bought my grandson his first knife at the age of 4. I got in a lot of trouble, because HE got in a lot of trouble! Can't remember now all the things he poked holes in, but it was substantial. He's a knife lover to this day!

The Word of God is described in Heb. 4:12-13 like this: "For the Word of God is living and active, sharper than any two edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account."

A good knife can do a lot of things. God's Word is even better at doing good things. And, It can read your intent, your heart, your motivation. Friends, we are not doing things, or saying things, that God doesn't know about. Let's do and say what is true, noble, just, pure, lovely, and of a good report! Phil. 4:8.
